Your future in tech starts here.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

Try something new this summer and join Break Through Tech DC at UMD for our Summer Guild.

In one week, you will:

- understand and work on solutions to real-world problems
- explore coding, product design, and user experience research
- connect with a community of like-minded students through small classes and team projects
- see what a job in tech looks like

Give yourself the chance to consider a career in tech.

We welcome all applicants from underrepresented groups in tech to apply.
